Harbor kept Barbara Bartenstein, Govt. Sales; Marg Leslie, 12th Floor; Mary Ann Flynn, Credit; Ann Connors, Traffic, and Pat Langan, E&OO, busy for a week. . . Margaret Paprocki and Arvid Lakeberg will exchange nuptial vows at St. Stanislaus Church at high noon Saturday. Statistical girls partied her and Joan Eagle at the University Club. Joan's now keeping house for her husband.

Chivalrous and romantic names are in the news these days. Suzanne Lancelot has joined the Insurance Dept. from Steno. And Martha Valentine, Tabulating, is engaged to Pfc. Robert Monacelli. He gave her a diamond when he was home from the Air Force Base at Dover, Del.

Ruth Hill and Edna Haefele will know the U.S. before they return to Roch. Br. Billing. Traveling by Greyhound Bus, they first went to Washington, to Charlotte, N.C., and on to New Orleans. There they are parting company. Ruth will go north to Chicago and Edna will go west to Los Angeles. . . Rosemary Gerling, Roch. Br. Order, and Robert Carr, KP, were married Oct. 20 at Holy Rosary Church. Among the prenuptial parties was a shower given by Alice McDermott, Roch. Br. Admin., at her home. . . A lovely diamond enhances Betty Wilson's engagement ring. The Public Relations Dept. girl received it from Bill Powell on Oct. 12. They're planning a spring wedding. . . New secretary to L. L. (Farnley) Farnsworth in Roch. Br. Admin., is Betty Lazara. She has taken over from Margarie Caulfield who now is keeping house. Filling Betty's position as secretary to Walt Fritz, Roch. Br. Billing head, is Maryline Myers, Billing member. . . Off to Cleveland went Clare Wolcott, 13th Floor, and her husband for a weekend visit with her sister. . . Janet Curran, Photo-finish Sales Div., recently went to Montreal and motored through New England. . . Teresa Hart, Export, is visiting Gay Van Stone in Huntington, W. Va. Gay was once on KO's 17th Floor.

These people are among the KOers who report the news to KODAKERY. They'll be glad to serve you.

Near Russian Zone

Supply clerk for an Army postal unit in Wildflecken, Germany, is Pvt. Danny Suski who went in service from Roch. Br. Stock.

Wildflecken in German means "wild spot"—"and whoever named this place must have been crazy," he writes. "There isn't a quieter spot in all Germany."

"Our camp sits up on a mountain just a few kilometers from the Russian Zone border and has practically no recreational facilities. It's a new camp, though, and better days are ahead. They've started construction on a service club and a new gym is in the offing. Now, however, I have to confine my activities mostly to reading, letter writing and movies on week nights. Weekends are different, though," he added. "I go either to Bad Kissingen or Wurzburg."

The letter, sent to George Heft, Roch. Br. Stock, asked for the address of Cpl. Bob Wilson, another Roch. Br. Stock serviceman, who also is stationed in Germany.

grown up. They now have a teenage son and daughter, both born in Argentina.

Upon his return to the States, he joined the Company's Govt. Sales Division. Men of his department took him to lunch to celebrate the anniversary.

Lend an Ear—When KODAKERY Photographer Jim Park saw the Ripley "Believe It or Not" item about a one-eared rabbit, he declared, "Shucks, what's so unusual about that, I've got a one-eared rabbit." The picture proves it, too.

Guess Who—When Neva Hauss had a Halloween Party at her Koneoye Lake home, her guests were a weird group. However, beneath the masks were found, from left, Marion Bodensteiner, Flossie Appleton, Helen Bernardino, Charlotte Skeel, Ella Huck and Virginia Chase. All are in Finishing.
